Qualifications:

Diane is recently retired from the State of Utah after spending 27 years working in the Criminal and Juvenile Justice field. She worked as a sworn peace officer for 14 years with Adult Parole and Probation, and later as an administrator with the Division of Youth Corrections.

She holds a B.S. of Sociology and Criminology, as well as a Master's of Public Administration, from the University of Utah.

Diane currently serves as the executive director for YEEHAAA, an organization that teaches communication and life skills to our community's youth. She volunteers on the boards of the Gateway Chapter of Business and Professional Women, Salt Lake County Mayor's Commission on Youth, and is one of the directors of the Utah Women's State Legislative Council.

As a life-long public servant, Diane has worked to keep our communities safe, help those in need, and ensure accountable and transparent government. She has lived in District 3 most of her life and is passionate about seeing it continue to be a great place to live. The combination of her education, professional background, and love of the District 3 community makes her well qualified to represent it on the Salt Lake County Council.
